Thank you for your time. I have a 2000 Chevy Venture that has a no crank, no start situation. I had the starter and the battery tested and they are both ok. I am not getting 12v to the starter. I do get 12v to the 30 pin and 12 v to the 85 pin on the starter relay. I tested the relay and it is good. I put power to it and checked for resistance.
