Cocktails at Le Carmen is a very light, fun story about shopping, girlfriends and of course cocktails, all in the city of light, 'Paris'. Simple as that - a light easy chick lit. Full review at: <http://greatreadsandtealeaves.blogspot...>

Cocktails at Le Carmen by Isabelle Andover

Cocktails at Le Carmen by Isabelle Andover, apart of having all the things I look for in chick lit, also has a beautiful setting, as is Paris. Cocktails at Le Carmen was a win-win read for me. Cocktails at Le Carmen is the perfect beach read. I recommend it to chick lit fans or to anyone who wants to read an easy, fun and highly entertaining book.

Le Carmen falls into a space between cocktail bar and nightclub, with a coming lineup of music and dj's and somewhat of a 'late night' feel. Closing hour is currently 2am, but that may be extended in the future. The music focus is fitting as this was also where the opera Carmen was written.

Cocktails at Le Carmen is a charmer, one that you should pick up and read for yourself. The perfect beach or back porch book to indulge yourself with. I would recommend this novel for anyone who enjoys a touch of comedy in their romance, a bit of culture shock and simply enjoys laughing out loud when the impulse takes you over.

Le Carmen is one of the most unusual and original bars right now in Paris. Set in French composer Bizet's grandiose former residence (and named after his most famous opera) the recently opened cocktail bar draws in a rock and roll crowd to its decadent boudoir style space with its unparalleled setting, superlative drinks and innovative schedule of events.
