5.0 out of 5 stars ' analysis of the ego and the mechanisms of defence is brilliant.

Reviewed in the United Kingdom on 30 December 2014. The book is very clearly written. The author leaves no doubt in my mind that she was her father's true heir.

Her analysis of the ego and the mechanisms of defence is brilliant and extends her father's work in the direction that he was working towards with his later drive structural model.

The frame of reference of The Ego and the Mechanisms of Defence is Freud's second topography (structural theory). The subject of the book is the defenses developed by the individual ego in order to confront or avoid the conflicts provoked by the id in its relations with the ego and the superego. Anna Freud approaches psychoanalytic technique and theory, along with defensive formations, from the specific perspective of the observation of the ego through the
